Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to the First European Conference of Young Gastroenterologists “Challenges in Clinical Gastroenterology and Hepatology” that will be held in Sheraton Hotel, in Zagreb, December 6-9, 2018.

With the aim of better and further education and training, and even more in the desire to strengthen international cooperation between young gastroenterologists and other professionals related to gastroenterology and hepatology, the Croatian National Society of Gastroenterology with its Youth Section has set to organize the first European conference of young gastroenterologists (ECYG). The conference is supported by European Association for Gastroenterology, Endoscopy and Nutrition (EAGEN), European Society of Neurogastroenterology and Motility (ESMN) and European Federation of Societies for Ultrasound in Medicine and Biology (EFSUMB), University of Zagreb and University of Rijeka, University of Zagreb School of Medicine, Faculty of Medicine University of Rijeka and Split, University of Rijeka Faculty of Health Studies, Croatian Medical Association, City of Zagreb, Croatian Parliament, President of Croatia, as well as Ministry of Health of the Republic of Croatia.

During the conference, sessions in hepatology and liver transplantation, inflammatory bowel disease and gut microbiota, functional GI disorders, clinical nutrition, GI oncology and education of young gastroenterologists will be held. A challenging clinical case followed by up-to-date guidelines and evidence-base on the management of that particular case will be presented by a GI resident or a young gastroenterologist, while each session will be chaired by acknowledged experts in the field that will make comments. Alongside the theoretical part, hands-on workshops will be organized, where participants will be able, in different ultrasound based, as well as in different endoscopic diagnostic modalities, to learn or improve skills. Selected abstracts will be presented during two abstract sessions, and the best abstracts will be presented as oral presentations at the last session of the conference. Additionally, ESPEN Life Long Learning Programme (LLL) ‘Nutritional support in GI disorders’ will be organized where delegates will be able to acquire knowledge about clinical nutrition in the context of gastroenterology and hepatology.

As the conference will be organized in December, all delegates will have the opportunity to enjoy the Advent in the City of Zagreb, the capital of Croatia, which has received awards for the best Christmas Market in Europe for the past three years.

We hope that scientific part of the conference together with networking opportunities will facilitate exchange of experience and ideas hopefully resulting with fruitful collaboration and long-lasting relationships and friendship among colleagues from all over Europe.

Looking forward to seeing you in Zagreb!

Conference President: Assist. prof. Ivana Mikolašević, MD, PhD

Conference Vice President: Tomislav Bokun, MD, PhD
PURPOSE

ECYG, European Conference of Young Gastroenterologist, is established to improve the knowledge and training of young gastroenterologists and to stimulate the awareness of young people about the need for teamwork, co-operation and education. The conference brings together gastroenterology residents and specialists of up to 40 years of age from all over Europe and wider, and also welcomes those residents and young doctors of other specialties who are dealing with digestive health.

MISSION

To educate young gastroenterologists under the supervision of senior experts established in specific fields of gastroenterology. To connect young gastroenterologists and to enable them to initiate a constructive and productive dialogue and to create network for future collaboration with colleagues across Europe.

VISION

To generate educated, skilled and productive young international GI teams that work together.
ECYG GOALS

1. Education – The conference was specifically designed for young gastroenterologist. The design of the lectures, presentations and courses were all tailored to fit best the questions and needs of gastroenterologists in training, offer up-to-date algorithms on diagnostics and treatments, and the overview of the latest scientific research.

2. Teamwork – This is a great opportunity for networking, meeting new colleagues and exchanging experience. Intent is to connect young gastroenterologists and to enable them to initiate a constructive dialogue and to create network for future collaboration, clinical and scientific.

3. Research – You have a great research idea, but don’t have enough patients, experience, and support? This is the right place for you to meet future colleagues, co-investigators, co-workers, form your research team TODAY! Need an idea? Listen to other doctors and their ideas, hear their research and results! Get inspired!

4. International internship – Meet senior experts established in specific fields of gastroenterology, present them your ideas and visions, connect and be a guest at their hospitals and be prepared to host their young doctors in training, in purpose to learn, exchange experience, knowledge, do research.

5. ECYG – a must-have, not an option

Nutritional Support in Gastrointestinal Diseases

- Compromised Gut
- Challenges in treating short bowel syndrome
- Nutrition and gastrointestinal fistulas
- Nutrition in inflammatory bowel disease
- Case presentations

09:30-11:00  SESSION 11: Case-based learning: what gastroenterologist needs to know about the pathohistological analysis?

State-of-the-art:

- Neuroendocrine tumours – new classification / Brčić I
- Autoimmune liver disease / Škrtić A
- Inflammatory bowel disease / Fučkar-Čupić D

Discussion and Questions

12:30  Certificates – ESPEN Life Long learning Program (LLL) in nutrition support in GI disorders – part I and II

Closing Remarks
Dear colleagues,

It is our honor and pleasure to invite you to Zagreb for the 1st Conference for Young Nurses in Gastroenterology, which is supported by the Association of Nurses and Technicians in Gastroenterology and Endoscopy of Croatia.

The conference is designed in a way that all participants actively participate as much as possible. Young colleagues will present professional results, concrete cases and nursing recommendations according to „up to date” guidelines with as much discussion as possible, all with mentoring by senior – more experienced nurses.

We believe that the conference will be successful primarily owing to the selected topics that are at the center of the interest of nurses working in the field of gastroenterology, hepatology and liver transplantation. Selected topics will include the area of hepatology with special emphasis on liver transplantation, endoscopic diagnostic and therapeutic methods, inflammatory bowel disease and clinical nutrition and intensive care of gastroenterological patients. The best abstracts will be awarded at the last session of the conference.

This conference is an exceptional opportunity for learning and sharing new ideas and experiences with colleagues. Wherever you are, take the opportunity to move away from your daily routine to discover new approaches and to acquire knowledge, but above all to connect with other colleagues and take home knowledge and ideas as a motivation for your work.

Of course, with all the professional part that will be in front of us, we will have enough time for pleasant companionship during advent in Zagreb, the capital of Croatia, which has received awards for the best Christmas Market in Europe for the past three years. We will be delighted if you decide to take part in this Conference and thus make it that much more valuable.

Kind regards and hopefully see you soon in Zagreb.
PURPOSE

European Conference of Young Gastroenterologist has the main goal to educate and bring closer young gastroenterologist but a part from them it also has the same goal for nurses from that area. Except education conference puts accent on team work and team can not work completely without nurses who have big role in whole process.

MISSION

Education and collaboration of young nurses from deparments of gastroenterology through lectures moderated by older and more experienced nurses. Like doctors in that area nurses as well have tips and tricks in diagnostic methods and treatment of patient so mission is to exchange those tips to improve whole care about the patient during the whole hospitalization.

VISION

To generate educated, skilled and productive young international GI teams of doctors and nurses.

GOALS

1. To organize the first european conference for nurses in gastroenterology and fields associated with it
2. Improve education and training of young nurses
3. To strengthen cooperation between nurses and other team members within their institution and between different institution
